HBA of Colorado Springs Welcomes Katherine Croft as Leadership Development & HBA Cares Coordinator

COLORADO SPRINGS – Jul. 24, 2018 – The Housing & Building Association of Colorado Springs is pleased to welcome Katherine Croft as the new Leadership Development & HBA Cares Coordinator. She will directly support the activities of HBA Cares and its Board of Directors, Leadership Development Committee, the Emerging Leaders Program and assist with the vision for future projects and leadership development activities.

Croft received her Bachelor of Arts in Education with a concentration in Spanish and Psychology from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan. She also earned her Master of Arts in Spanish linguistics from New Mexico State University. Before joining the HBA, Croft taught English in Mexico for two years at the nonprofit institution La Gloria English School in Isla Mujeres, Mexico and at the American School Foundation of Chiapas. Croft also taught Spanish at the Air Force Academy for eight years and is still a medical interpreter within the Pikes Peak Region.

“HBA Cares and the Leadership Development Boards are thrilled to have Katherine on board! Katherine is a natural for this position. Her professional career as a high school Spanish teacher combined with her enthusiasm for the nonprofit service will lend for an exciting future for HBA,” said Josh Peterson, HBA Cares President.

About the Housing & Building Association of Colorado Springs

Homes are a cornerstone of the American dream and a major driver of our economy. The Housing & Building Association of Colorado Springs was founded in 1950 as the voice of the homebuilding community and associated trades. We advance best practices, advocate for affordable housing, contribute expertise to regional development issues and serve our community through our workforce initiatives and HBA Cares programs.
